English learner institute held for parents

Published By Daily Democrat

Created: 02/16/2010 02:30:36 AM PST

The Woodland Joint Unified School District will hold its third annual English Learner Parent Institute on Saturday, from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Lee Middle School, 520 West St.

The purpose of the institute is to provide parents of English Learners with information that will help them support their child's education.

Last year, 200 parents participated in twelve workshops featuring presenters from a variety of community and government agencies, including Yolo Family Resource Center, Woodland Joint Unified School District, Woodland Healthcare, UC Davis, People Reaching Out, Yolo County Office of Education, and California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation.

This year, a total of 12 workshops will include information on university admission requirements, how to help your child's English language development, chronic illnesses, communicating, understanding and educating your adolescent, gang prevention, teen pregnancy prevention, benefits of bilingualism, truancy, attendance, and graduation.

The sponsors for this event are: Woodland Joint Unified School District, Migrant Education (Area 2), Yolo County Office of Education, Community Alliance for Education, Woodland California Association for Bilingual Education, California Mini-Corps Program, Latino Community Council and the Yolo Family Resource Center.

To learn more about the institute, call María D. Orozco at 406-3249.
